

YOUR CREATIVE SIDE

Edmond Fine Arts Institute

Sponsored By:

Your Creative Side is an art based delinquency prevention program for teens. It offers art classes which encourage independent expression and hands-on experiences taught by Edmond Fine Arts Institute professional artist Gary Lennon. These classes complete court mandated community service requirements.

Steps to completing community service requirements via Your Creative Side:

- Step #1: The teen must come to Edmond Fine Arts Institute, 27 E. Edwards St., and have an "interview" with Janet Hoppe.
- Step #2: A class and a session will be chosen by the participant and Janet. Participants must attend all of the classes in the designated session.
 - YOUR CLASS ASSIGNMENT IS:
- Step #3: Once all of the classes and the project are complete participants must contact Janet to notify the court.

FAQ

- You do not have to pay for the classes. Community partners allow FAI to provide free tuition for participants in the Your Creative Side Program.
- You must attend ALL classes in the designated section. There are NO makeup classes unless FAI cancels the class due to weather or other circumstances.
- There are a select number of participants that can be included in the program per session. You are not guaranteed a place until you come in and complete this form and the form from the court with Janet.
- Participants are expected to arrive on time for classes. They are also expected to be respectful to Mr. Gary, their fellow classmates and to all FAI property.
